2008 PEAKCO EVENT DESCRIPTIONS

Sand Volleyball Sponsored by USAA Insurance

Number of participants: 6 (3 men, 3 women)

Rules: Sand volleyball at its best. Each team will consist of six people, rotating is allowed and encouraged as long as there is three men and three women on the court at any given time. Each game will be rally scoring to 11 points, single elimination. The championship game will determine the winner of this event.

Obstacle Course Sponsored by Enterprise Rent-A-Car

Number of participants: 6 (3 men, 3 women)

Rules: This is a timed event, fastest time wins. The course will start with a team challenge, ending with a traditional military style obstacle course. Each team will be given two minutes off the clock to determine a strategy to accomplish the team challenge. Once the clock is started each team must accomplish the team challenge and then all team members must run through the obstacle course one at a time. Time stops once the last team member has accomplished the obstacle course.

Team Chaos Sponsored by Allstate Insurance

Number of participants: 6 (3 men, 3 women)

Rules: Blind dodge ball, enough said. This event, brought to us by the Center for Creative Leadership 6 years ago, has become a team favorite. This event is competed in pairs, one person is the eyes and the other the ears. This is a true test of communication skills!

Tug-of-War Sponsored by RHW Hotels

Number of participants: 6 (3 men, 3 women)

Rules: This classic event has been around for ages. We hold our event in the soft sand of the volleyball courts. This is a battle of brute strength, first team to pull the center of the rope past their line advances to the next round. Final championship round determines event winner.

Relay Race sponsored by Wells Fargo

Number of participants: 6 (3 men, 3 women)

Rules: Each participant will hand off the baton to the next participant. There is no penalty for a dropped baton. Two teams will compete at once. Fastest time over all wins the event.

Sixth Event to be UNVEILED day of the event

Number of participants: 6 (3 men, 3 women)

Rules: To keep things interesting, each year we rotate out an event and bring one back from years past or introduce a new event. You will just have to wait and see what this year's event holds, as the 6th event will not be unveiled until Saturday, July 19!
